About Your Sun Sign:

You were born with the Sun in Libra in the 11th house.

The Sun signifies the type of work that gets you the most excited, energized, and fired up about life. It also describes the areas where you naturally shine and how you will gain the most enjoyment from the work you do.

As a Libra, you're skilled at harnessing your natural sense of charm to find balance between opposing viewpoints. You love to create fairness and beauty in the world around you. You also easily understand others and can be especially good at building relationships & negotiating with others to get what you need or want.

As an Air sign, you're most interested in ideas & concepts. As a Mutable sign, you're quite adaptable to change & may even have a soothing presence which allows you to be of great help to others, whether you're hoping to make them feel more comfortable or simply creating a greater sense of harmony in your surroundings.

Your planetary ruler is Venus... the planet of love, money, beauty, pleasure, and harmony, so you are naturally attuned to all of the beauty you see around you and have a desire to remind others of all of the lovely, nice things in the world through art, music, social niceties, or material things that can uplift your mood as well.

You will need a career where you can be highly competitive, artistic, observant, and where you will be able to use your special skills to work closely with others. You would be a natural at any career related to public relations, customer service, music, beauty, the arts, acting, styling, design, politics, law, counseling, human resources, refereeing, architecture, marketing, or even advertising.

While you do often like to take the lead, it's also nice for you to have someone on your side to brainstorm with and bounce ideas off of. As a Libra, you are naturally built for marriage or a strong partnership, but it's also important for you to learn to cultivate a strong sense of self-worth on your own as well.

Your life's expression lies in the 11th house, the area of life that is best known for your Community. You express yourself best through helping your friends or people in your community & working to make the world around you a better place for everyone to live.

About Your Moon Sign:

SAGITTARIUS

You were born with the Moon in Sagittarius in the 1st house.

The Moon describes your inner emotional landscape and the type of conditions that are needed for you to feel most comfortable and creative in your life.

With your Moon in the fire sign of Sagittarius, you tend to believe the world is filled with endless possibilities and opportunities that you are constantly curious to explore. You like your life to be moving in exciting new directions that keep things interesting and fun for you, and may be driven to run off & escape if you get bored.

Sagittarius Moons have a strong desire to learn & grow from new experiences, places, and intellectual pursuits. You naturally gravitate towards your curiosities, yet you may not always be the best at planning things out, because you think mostly with your heart and prefer to step back and look at the bigger picture.

You will feel at your best when you can find a career that allows you to deepen your knowledge of something that you are extremely interested in, whether it's related to travel, spirituality, or higher education about a subject that intrigues you. You would likely dislike being trapped in a cubicle or in any situation where you feel confined in any way. Often jumping from job to job until you find one that can truly capture your interest for the long haul, you tend to thrive on change & adventure more than most people and this is something you also crave in your career.

When you are not feeling your best, it's often because you are channeling the emotional nature of your opposite sign of Gemini instead of your own Moon Sign. This can result in being wishy washy, changeable, flighty, unfocused, or allowing your attention to be split in too many directions, when your Sagittarian emotional nature would actually prefer to focus deeply on one intriguing subject at a time.

Your emotional landscape centers around the 1st house, the area of your Identity & Persona. You make most of your decisions based on your intuition and how you believe your actions will be perceived by others. You hope to be seen as someone special and in charge of your own life, and it is important for you to express yourself in a way that is truly authentic to your deeper soul desires and to bring this out in the way you live your life and set-up your career, too.

About Your Rising Sign:

♏ SCORPIO

Your Rising Sign, also known as your ‘Ascendant’ (AS), is the self you show to the world. Think of it this way: If your Sun reveals who you truly are at heart, your Rising Sign rules your physical, outward appearance and describes how others see you. This is also the work you’re meant to DO to discover your calling.

As a Scorpio Rising, you may seem very cool, calm, and collected on the outside, however chances are there may be a few secrets you hide beneath the surface. Although you can also appear to be powerful, determined, and strong-willed, there is probably something about you that is quite mysterious & magnetic.

Scorpio Rising tend toward the more dramatic side of life and this applies to their career as well. They can make wonderful actors, artists, detectives, therapists, ghost hunters, surgeons, or even crime scene investigators as they love to uncover the deeper truths that are normally kept hidden or concealed from others.

It is also considered very lucky to act and dress like your Rising Sign, as it helps you get into character in order to reach your potential. A Scorpio’s wardrobe includes lots of black with a dramatic touch of red, perhaps even cloak-like clothing that conceals your body in some way, like a sweater or over-sized black sunglasses.

As a personal brand, you want to aim to be known in your career as someone who is brave, empathetic, and passionate about uncovering the deeper truths in life (perhaps sex, death, or other taboo subjects), and someone who is skilled at reminding others of their own ability to undergo a deep personal transformation, too, like a therapist, life or relationship coach.

Other Scorpio Rising include: Nicole Kidman, Natalie Portman, Hillary Clinton, Megan Fox, Dita Von Teese, Dannii Minogue, Katharine Hepburn, Chloe Sevigny

**The Rising Sign always begins in the 1st house of your chart, which is related to your Identity & Sense of Self. Sometimes reading the horoscope for your Rising Sign will seem more accurate than your Sun Sign because the Rising Sign describes more of what you are actually consciously trying to do in the world.*

About Your Midheaven:

VIRGO

Your Midheaven, as seen as MC on your chart, denotes your Career Line which begins at the 10th house. This axis point signifies your true calling or over-arching mission in this lifetime.

With your Midheaven in Virgo, you are meant to leave a legacy of purity, practicality, and providing service to others. You will do this by helping others to create order, analyzing your environment, and editing or simplifying the world around you to create a greater sense of refinement.

Those with Virgo as their Midheaven hope to become known as a person who is logical, analytical, and practical. You can be very good at picking out the things that are not working in any given situation and focusing on the finer details to improve the world around you by getting rid of what doesn't matter or isn't helping to bring up the value of the whole. One of your weaknesses, however, may come from over-analyzing or being too critical when it is not called for as part of your job.

In terms of career options, you can be very good at working with your hands, or even adorning or improving the body, either artistically or for a more practical purpose, but generally you may prefer to work behind the scenes in some way (depending on the rest of your chart). You could also have a way with language or writing, science, publishing, administrative work, psychology, politics, fashion, or being a secretary or personal assistant.

The main thing, however, is that Virgo likes to know what is going to happen every day of every year, and you need a career that is going to be incredibly stable to support you in feeling secure and laser focused.

**Other notes: You also have the planet Jupiter in your 10th house of Career, showing that you will find the most growth and abundance in your life when you are channeling your efforts into expanding your career and aiming to reach the heights of your personal legacy. This is a very exciting placement that shows you have the potential to build an amazing career that lights you up and one that makes the world feel endlessly magical and abundant for you.*

A Planetary Map of Your Inner & Outer Worlds

MERCURY in LIBRA

With your Mercury in Libra, your mindset and thought patterns generally circle around the concept of seeking out harmony and balance in your surroundings and social circles. You are a natural diplomat and it's important for you to have an intellectual or mental connection to those who you engage in relationships with. You strive for perfection and fairness, and naturally look to compromise. You may poll others for their opinions rather than making your decisions on your own, but this also makes you a skilled negotiator & networker.

VENUS in SCORPIO

With your Venus in Scorpio, you crave intimacy and value depth. You are a very dedicated and passionate lover, and will accept nothing less than a deep commitment when it comes to your relationships. In work, you naturally attract others with your intensity, fearlessness, and undivided attention. Your deeper desires may sometimes seem somewhat extreme to others, however you are just very loyal and super determined to get what you want.

MARS in CANCER

With your Mars in Cancer, you may prefer to feel completely secure before you act on something. It can be beneficial for you to work on your own where you can be in control of your direction and ensure your goals are leading you towards a greater sense of security. You are also passionate and creative, in tune with your desires, sensitive to the needs of others, and dedicated to creating a greater sense of comfort to keep your mood in balance.

JUPITER in VIRGO

With your Jupiter in Virgo and your 10th house, you will attract more good fortune and beneficial opportunities when you are being helpful, honest, practical, organized, and paying close attention to the smaller details in your life + career. With Jupiter falling in an Earth sign, you will need to visualize the results you're hoping to achieve in order to actually feel motivated to achieve them. You may not necessarily like to take big risks, and you will need a strong sense of direction, clear goals, and a solid plan that will garner tangible results. The good news with this placement is that you have a very high probability for career success, and when you channel your energies in the area of your career, the world will open up to you with endless opportunities for joy and abundance!

SATURN in AQUARIUS

With your Saturn in Aquarius and your 3rd house, you have made a promise, even before you incarnated into this life, that you would be open to new and progressive ideas that have been provided by others in your close community or network. However, you were also born while Saturn was in retrograde, so you may not always know how to incorporate this knowledge into your daily life, and this is precisely what you are meant to question and explore.

With this placement, you can be strong, impersonal, opinionated, and may naturally feel somewhat superior to or different from others which can make you feel like others do not easily accept you. Your big challenge in this lifetime is to grow while being fair and open to everyone, and your life will present a series of obstacles related to this subject as you grow older to help you learn to embrace this idea so you can work together with others to improve society.

URANUS in CAPRICORN

With Uranus in Capricorn in your chart, getting ahead in all areas of your life may be especially important to you, and you may be ready to do whatever it takes to achieve your goals. You have the drive and intellect needed to reach the top and succeed and are more than capable of overcoming any kind of challenge that is thrown your way. You may also have an inclination to see into the future and plan ahead as much as possible, and you stand out from the crowd by being an excellent innovator.

NEPTUNE in CAPRICORN

You were born in a time period from 1984 - 1999 when societal ideals centered around discovering the most practical form of action for dealing with the unknown. On the flipside, it can also create confusion around systems or strategies or your motivations behind them. You may have a hard time sticking to a plan since Neptune does not feel all that comfortable feeling like their true watery & boundary-less self in Capricorn's world of constrictions & steadfast discipline. Your goal is to balance your creativity in healthy and practical ways, and try not to hide when you feel your work is not perfectly in line with your values right away. Practice makes perfection!

PLUTO in SCORPIO

You were also born into a generation from 1984-1995 that was acutely aware of their personal position in the world and therefore became concerned with figuring out their purpose is at a much younger age than previous generations. You may have gone through some dark emotional times at a young age while you questioned why you are here & what you are meant to do.

The goal of this generation is to engage in a considerable amount of soul-searching in order to think of creative solutions to things that are broken in order to lead us all into the next spiritual revolution. This placement may seem dark in a way, but Pluto in Scorpio is also ambitious, transformative, adaptable, and emotionally resilient - just what is needed most during periods of change.

Your South Node:

♊ GEMINI

The South Node of the Moon describes your innate natural gifts & talents as well as past karma that you have brought into this lifetime from previous incarnations.

With your South Node in Gemini, you are especially skilled at communicating or socializing with others, spreading messages, multi-tasking, and engaging in mental pursuits such as writing or speaking. You may also be especially curious, flexible, inventive, and able to communicate facts and ideas in a way that would benefit you or somehow bend a situation to your advantage.

However, in a previous lifetime, you may have gone a little bit overboard with developing these skills by spending too much of your time & energy in familiar or shallow territory through gossiping or, in extreme cases, even lying or stealing. You may have twisted words and facts to suit you, somehow causing harm to others in the process either inadvertently or on purpose.

Your South Node in Gemini also has to do with developing too much of a need for other people to validate your existence, forcing you to strive to be someone you're not just to please others and feel accepted. You may have even been overly superficial, changing your mind and opinions frequently to suit you in whichever social situation you might find yourself in.

Overall, it's best for you to celebrate your curiosity, ability to articulate clearly, and utilize your gift for networking, but learn to leave the more negative aspects of Gemini behind for good.

One of your biggest life goals is to learn seek out balance between the South Node and the North Node. While the South Node describes your previous skills and past life karma, the North Node provides a way to counter-balance these energies and grow into a more well-rounded person by stepping outside your usual comfort zone.

Your North Node: SAGITTARIUS

The North Node of the Moon describes the necessary future growth needed to take you towards your greatest potential. Aiming for this point will accelerate your learning and take you to new heights in your life + career much more quickly.

Compared to Gemini, Sagittarius is much more philosophical, optimistic, open-minded, and adventurous. Both of these signs are skilled at spreading messages, however the way they go about this, and the type of messages they are interested in communicating, are basically opposite.

While Gemini tends to live in busy, city areas, Sagittarius long to go off and explore the greater world around them. You are also meant to step out of your comfort zone by becoming more of a big picture thinker and letting your audience adapt to you, instead of the other way around. Pull yourself away from the distractions of other people and claim your own meaning of life that you can then share with others.

No matter how foreign this sounds to you, this is the energy to step into over the course of your lifetime and channeling this into your career can be especially helpful and rewarding. Your goal is to learn to balance the strong Gemini energy from your past and learn to move...

- From Gemini's attunement to the people & things around them to Sagittarius' attunement to their inner wisdom
- From Gemini's short-term decisions to Sagittarius' consciousness of long-term consequences
- From Gemini's trivial pursuits to Sagittarius' deeper knowledge

With your North Node in Sagittarius in the 2nd house, you are here to learn to embrace your self-worth and creative self-expression in the material world. Discover your own truth to live by, cultivate your own values, and let others have their own opinions about you without letting them affect all of your decisions.

Your Soul Level Fascinations

CHIRON in LEO

With the "Wounded Healer" asteroid Chiron placed in your chart in Leo, you may have felt that your talents have been overlooked. Maybe you never quite felt like you got the chance to shine in your childhood or even in past lifetimes. However, because of this, as you overcome your own difficulties around realizing your potential or believing you are talented & special, you will be gifted with the ability to help others bring out their own latent creative self-expression, too.

VESTA in SCORPIO

With the "Devotion" asteroid Vesta in Scorpio, you are especially devoted to uncovering your deeper instinctual & artfully expressive nature. You're also very passionate about finding beauty that is hidden beneath the surface. You have the ability to completely regenerate your personality, potentially through psychic or artistic gifts. In relationships, you can be especially passionate & demand all or nothing from others. One of your big goals with this placement is to learn moderation and trust.

PALLAS ATHENA in SAGITTARIUS

The "Spiritual Awakening" asteroid, Pallas Athena, describes the type of things that make the world light up for you with pure magic. With Pallas Athena falling in your 2nd house, your world opens up to you when you are able to earn money or possessions from your creative or practical schemes devised from gathering beautiful ideas, items, knowledge or concepts from around the world. If you are able to bring this into your career, you may be able to manifest an abundance of material possessions simply by visualizing what you want and getting organized to make it happen.

What Makes You Especially Unique

{ OTHER NOTABLE CHART ASPECTS }

✧ Your Sun & Jupiter are nearly conjoined, pointing to an ability for expansive self-expression and a presence that may be inspirational to others.

✧ You also have your Pluto conjoined with your Rising Sign, defining your identity as someone who has a great capacity for outer transformation that can be mesmerizing or magnetic to others, yet you may also seem somewhat intimidating, too.

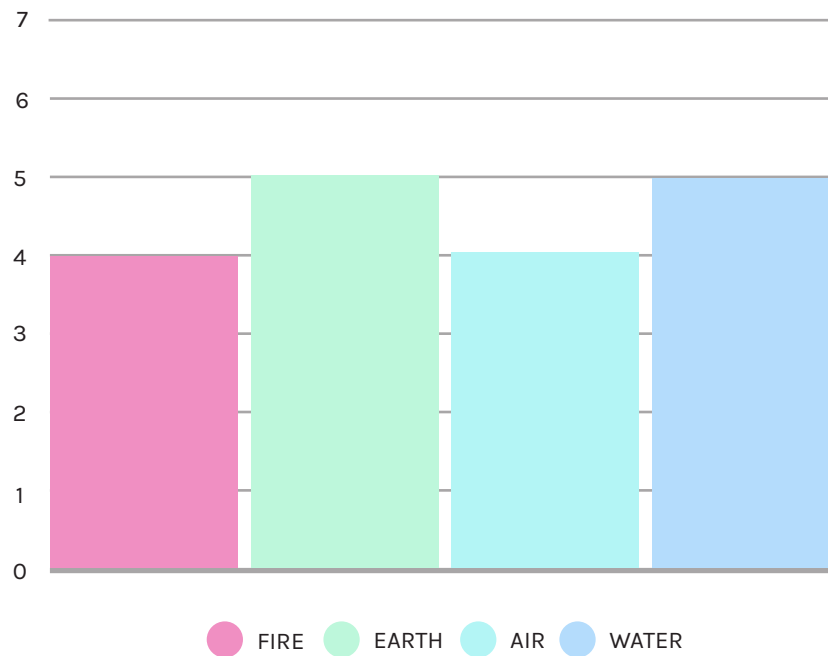

✧ Uranus, Neptune, and Part of Fortune are also conjoined. Your dreams & ideals may seem radical or unusual to others, however this is also where your biggest opportunities for luck and fortune lie.

✧ North Node & Pallas Athena are conjoined, showing that you strive to achieve a more knowledgeable and spiritually open-minded viewpoint of the world.

✧ Venus & Vesta are also conjoined, denoting a deep devotion to love & money.

✧ You were born on a Waxing Crescent moon phase, making you especially skilled at planning or researching ideas you would like to manifest in the future.

In Your Element

When it comes to the 4 elements, you are actually quite balanced, which is not entirely unusual for a Libra, the sign that is best known for its ability to provide balance and fairness.

EARTH & WATER - Your Earth & Water elements are equally balanced and strong. You possess both an emotionally receptive and resilient attitude as well as a solid practical energy that helps you ground your ideas into reality using whatever resources you have available.

FIRE & AIR - Your Fire & Earth elements are also equally balanced, but not quite as strong as Earth & Water. When you have a good idea, don't just let it float around forever in your mind, be prepared to take action to make it happen, too.

Who You Work Best With

GEMINI

Your fellow Air sign, Gemini, is at ease with your communication style and open to chatting about conceptual ideas and building rapport.

AQUARIUS

Another fellow Air sign, Aquarius, loves to chat about new & different ideas you may not have thought of and can help provide you with inspiration and unique forms of knowledge.

LEO

Fire sign, Leo, will enjoy your flattery and charm while encouraging you to have the courage of your convictions.

SAGITTARIUS

Another Fire sign, Sagittarius, will appreciate your willingness to go along with their adventuresome attitude and can also inspire you to safely step out of your comfort zone.

Most challenging signs:

Aries - your opposite sign, can be blunt or lack your preferred mode of diplomacy, grace, and fairness. Cancer and Capricorn tend to see things in black and white, where you prefer shades of gray.

**Note: This does not mean it's impossible to get along with or work alongside these people (especially because they may have other signs strongly present in their chart), but you may not quite experience the invigorating feeling of being in authentic alignment with a kindred soul as much as the signs listed on top.*

How to Achieve Better Work/Life Balance

LIBRA RECHARGES BY:

- 1) Interacting with other Air signs, especially Gemini & Aquarius.

If you were a Tarot card...

The Hierophant is very conventional and this Tarot card suggests you have a desire to follow the correct process of doing things.

This Tarot card represents...

- Doing what is expected of you.
- Channeling your power through societal norms.
- Sharing knowledge with others.
- A balance between the conscious and subconscious minds.
- Ability to unlock deeper mysteries while honoring tradition.
- You are not meant to challenge the status quo, but to find and teach the magic found within its borders.

You are meant to identify with a group and a way of thinking that will have benefit for you and will prompt further learning. You may seek to better understand a field of study that has been widely explored and documented, and teach it to others as leader or authority on the subject.

You may also be a mentor for others to turn to for wisdom or knowledge, like an artistic, creative, or spiritual teacher who helps others come into contact with their own inner magic. You are to become a trusted guide who will take others by the hand and help them come into contact with a greater sense of consciousness, creativity, or enlightenment.
